

Sandy Zhang,
MBA, Prof.

Senior Management Trainer & Consultant

General Manager and senior positions in international consulting firms, with extensive experience in working with a wide range of clients, from top multinational and local companies, to JVs, State-owned Enterprises, government, and consulting firms.

Her market knowledge in China includes a keen understanding of the challenges in designing and facilitating learning-based solutions in the mainland market, from strategy clarification, culture integration, team performance management, to organizational effectiveness and change management.

She has spent 3 years as project officer in coordinating with the World Bank and Asia Development Bank on China environmental projects. She also worked for a joint venture of a top European manufacturing company gaining first-hand experience in business operations.

She is the adjunct Professor of Shanghai Teacher University, holds an MBA degree from Webster University & Shanghai University of Finance & Economics. She co-authored ,Chinese-German M&A. A guide for Chinese business people' (Germany 2013). She is certified consultant of CPI(Culture Profile Indicator) and certified trainer of Clear Leadership.